

Theme: Even the strongest faith can be shaken when our expectations aren't met. Hence, we must turn them all over to Christ. Instead of meeting our faulty expectations he fulfills his plans - and does more than we could ask or imagine.

Background and Introduction:

- Our expectations betray us. Leave us disappointed.
- Three pieces that deal with expectations

I. The “Kingdom” Revealed vv.18-23

A. What John expected?

1. Swift judgment
 - John preached repentance & coming judgment
 - Expects Jesus to bring it swiftly; the reports are different
Doubt Creeps In!
2. “ Are you the One?” v.20
 - Jesus is sent from God! But is he the One?

B. What they saw

1. A Kingdom “preview” v.22 (Isaiah 35; 61:1,2)
2. Ministry far greater than they had anticipated!
3. A shared message
 - Calling sinners to repentance
 - With very different styles

C. What do we expect?

- 1. Believers?
2. Skeptics/doubters?

NOTE: His ways are not our ways. Need to get that clear in our heads and hearts.

II. The Way Prepared vv.24-30

A. John was a true prophet

B. The greatest of all the prophets

1. Those born of woman?
 - Greater than Moses, Samuel, Jeremiah, Ezekial, Elijah, Elisha?
 - Still belonged to the Old Testament sacrificial system

II. The Way Prepared (cont.)

C. Those Born of God? (28)

1. One Name above all others!
 - Jesus born of Mary, born of God!
2. The least in the Kingdom? Greater than John?
 - Greater knowledge
 - Greater blessing
 - Greater privilege (Hebrews 11:39,40)

D. Justifying God?

1. Some repented
 - God's judgments against sin are just
 - His demand for repentance is just
2. Some refused
 - They will "justify" themselves

III. A Childish Response – A Parable vv.31-35

- A. A childish taunt
 - We said "dance for us" – but he called us to repentance
 - We said "mourn for the wicked" – but you came and ate with sinners
- B. We will make our own rules!
 - Everyone can play by them
 - No expectation of judgment!

IV. The Way of Wisdom v.35

1. The wisdom of God is foolishness to many (1 Corinthians 1:23,24)
2. We cannot change the message that Jesus brought
3. Will the world see that same grace and truth in us that John's disciples saw?
4. The way of wisdom?
 - Let God and His Word shape our expectations –
 - So we see Jesus as he really is and not as I want him to be.
