INTRO, JOB Named after its main character, and perhaps its author(although Moses is a candidate). Job is the Hebrew word for “persecution” and the Arabic word for “repent.” It is set in the land of Uz (see Lamentations 4:21), next to Midian, where Moses lived for 40 years. In the northern Sinai peninsula, near Edom. Three simple divisions are the Dilemma, 1-2, the Debates, 3-37, and the Deliverance, 38-42. Though it may have been written in Moses’ day, 1400’s BC, it seems to have taken place around the time of Abraham, Genesis 11-12. That’s why we study it now. Consider long lives (42:16), livestock instead of gold (1:3, 42:12), Job is priest of his house, no priesthood (1:5). No references to Israel, Exodus, the Mosaic law, the tabernacle. The family is the social unit of the day. CHRIST: My Redeemer lives! (19:25-27) A Mediator is needed (9:33) Righteousness is requested (25:4)
