

Approaching the Abyss?

(February 20, 2024)

I've stated this before, but I'll say it again. I am not a seer or a prophet. Providing my opinion based on world events and biblical truth is why I write these articles.

From my somewhat limited view of global events and the fallout from them, as well as how things have been moving over the past four to five decades, it appears that nothing will create the retreat needed to push us back toward favorable times with God and humanity. In fact, it is biblically clear that we are quickly approaching the worst time for humanity and this earth as noted in Scripture in what the Bible refers to as the Tribulation (aka Daniel's 70th week or Time of Jacob's Trouble).

Though Satan has been relentless in his pursuit to be "like the Most High" (Isaiah 14:14), he has still been on a God-controlled leash. Try as he might, Satan could not bring the Antichrist to the world's stage before this because of God's specific timing. While Satan may have had a man in every generation ready for that purpose (Hitler, etc.), he was limited in what he could accomplish because of God's overall purposes. However, it certainly appears that the roadblocks deliberately placed by God to limit what Satan could accomplish, are being removed in fairly quick succession now as we quickly approach the upcoming seven year Tribulation (Daniel 9; Matthew 24). That seems terribly obvious to me.

I have no idea how much more time will pass before this coming terrible seven years of judgment will officially begin, but if globalists have their way, the world will be forcibly united as one by 2030 under their rule. That's now less than 6 years away. There are simply too many things happening to ignore.

I find it interesting that way back in 1969, Dr. Richard Day revealed aspects of what was already planned in a lecture in which he had apparently asked people not to take notes. This is part of what he stated then and I'd like readers to note that this is only based on the first of three articles on that subject. We'll take up more of it in an upcoming article.

Dr. Day stated to those in attendance the following.

'Plans much bigger than communism' have been set in motion' and 'people who were not primarily in public office, but people of prominence and known to the public through their occupations or private positions have the power to devise and implement such plans...to enter the twenty-first century with a running start. Everything is in place and nobody can stop us now...' (emphasis added)[1]

Do the names Bill Gates, George Soros or Klaus Schwab come to mind when you read "people of prominence" who have the power to make things happen? Just some of the things highlighted in that lecture that would be initiated included.[2]

- Compulsory sterilization
- Contraception
- Euthanasia and the "Demise Pill"
- Families will diminish in importance

- Fashion and sexuality
- Fluoridation
- Genetically Modified Organisms (GMO) crops
- Homosexuality
- Laboratory Babies
- Living Space & Agenda 21
- Media and sex
- New difficult-to-diagnose and untreatable disease
- Population Control
- Sex education
- Suppressing cancer cures as a means of population control

It should be clear today that most of that list has come to fruition. One obvious thing missing is "transgenderism," but back then, it would have been laughed at and ridiculed (as was "cross-dressing"). We know, however, it is definitely part of what grew out of the issue of homosexuality.

During that same lecture, Dr. Day also noted, "People will have to get used to the idea of change...that they'll be expecting change. Nothing will be permanent," and "People are too trusting. People don't ask the right questions."

Too many believed everything Fauci and others said, dutifully lining up for the mRNA (gene-therapy) jab that was said to be 95% effective. It's still touted as "safe and effective" while any adverse effects and deaths are ignored.

The second issue not listed is the complete eradication of Christianity, however it's obvious that this is implied in that list itself. Christianity won't be eradicated, but if globalists empowered by Satan can create an environment that is extremely hostile to Christians as happened during the Roman Empire and later with the French Terror<sup>[3]</sup> and the Bolshevik Revolution, they'll settle for that. During these events, millions of Christians were killed for simply being Christians.

Linda Kimball tells us of the effort to fully eradicate Christianity.<sup>[4]</sup>

We are looking at the final eradication of orthodox Christianity and of what was once known as Christendom and Protestant America and of all the people—Irish, German, French, Canadian, New Zealanders, Americans, and so on— whose mainly Christian ancestors carved out these civilizations and called them home.

Kimball also states the following about how today's Christ-hating Luciferians have simply taken the baton from previous generations and continue Satan's work of total destruction.

Today's Luciferian New World Order builders are determined to finish the job of eradicating what yet remains of the Christian based Western and American civilizations and their people since they bear the taint of their Christian past.

A third item not directly listed above is the abject and growing hatred of Israel and Jews, which is underway today. The war between Ukraine and Russia and Ukraine's Nazis as well as Hamas and their identification with Nazis in attempting to wipe out Jews has come to the surface. Yet, in spite of this, people around the world rally behind Ukraine and Nazis there. Either they don't notice the Nazis or they don't care and simply side against Jews. Zechariah had something to say about that.

And it shall happen in that day that I will make Jerusalem a very heavy stone for all peoples; all who would heave it away will surely be cut in pieces, though all nations of the earth are gathered against it. Zechariah 12:3

The world seems not to care that Hamas attacked Israel on October 7, raping, torturing and outright murdering innocent Jews because of Israel's alleged "apartheid" that doesn't actually exist. Notice Hamas did not attack Israel's military. They didn't have the guts to do that. Instead, like the true criminals they are, they attacked innocent, unarmed people. They took many hostages and have simply killed most of them after torturing them. The women they hold are continually raped and beaten and women's groups throughout the world remain silent.

But let's remind ourselves that first and second century church fathers believed what many ancient rabbis believed - that there will be a total of 6,000 years of human history that leads directly up to the final 1,000 year Millennium Kingdom over which Jesus will rule with a rod of iron. That takes the world to somewhere between 2030 and 2050.

Let's also remind ourselves that it is abundantly clear from Scripture that prior to the Antichrist taking his position as final human world ruler over humanity, the world must become unified as one global government ruled by ten kings. Once the ten kings take their positions of rule each over a tenth part of the earth, then the Antichrist makes his move to gain supremacy over the ten kings. This will put him in conflict with three where he will uproot them, leaving seven. Antichrist will become the eighth though in reality he will exercise supremacy over the seven. This is still future.

But I can see a confluence of events occurring and possibly in fairly quick succession, which will usher the ten kings and then Antichrist into their positions. For instance since it appears from the Bible and early church writings that the PreTrib Rapture<sup>[5]</sup> was their embraced doctrine, this event could occur at some point soon in this coming confluence of events. It will certainly make it easier for other events to occur because of it. Why?

When the Rapture happens, millions of people will be removed from this earth and the world will need an explanation. Enter space aliens (demons in disguise), to help convince the entire world that the people were removed for their benefit as well as the world's. These aliens will reveal themselves as benevolent higher, more intelligent beings who will explain that prior to this event - the great evacuation (aka Rapture) - they could not reveal themselves because of the issues created by those who were removed due to, among other things, their lack of belief in higher powers/ascended masters and Gaia herself. So Christians will be blamed for the increase in all negative things and now that Christians are gone, the world can progress toward Nirvana.

The aliens will state that the only recourse they had, in order to be able to help the entire earth move forward, was to remove those who kept things from happening and place them on other planets where they can spiritually evolve at their own pace (or not). Barbara Marciniak, one of the New Age go-to leaders taught this years ago.

Once this "great evacuation" occurs, along with the alien reveal, the world can then become fully unified into one truly global government. Since the Holy Spirit lives in Christians and works through that body of Christ (the invisible Church), with that Church gone, the Holy Spirit no longer has that Body of Christ to work through. For all intents and purposes, He will no longer act as a restraint against evil through the Church. It's probably not hard to imagine that once this occurs the increase of evil will go off the charts. Yet the people of this world will believe good things are just around the corner and aliens will be here to assure everyone that things are good as those who held things back are no longer in the way, creating a win-win situation for the people of earth and those who were removed to other planets.

So where does this leave us? It leaves us with the knowledge that God's plans, as revealed in Scripture, are coming to fruition. It leaves us realizing that things will not change for the better, but will become far worse. The Bible tells us what the future will be like prior to His return and the setting up of His Kingdom. Just a quick read of Revelation highlights God's judgments of famines, wars, pestilences, hatred, along with the release of hordes of demonic creatures driven by hatred that compels them.

I realize that there are many who say we should pray that God will reverse what is happening. But how then would His revealed will be accomplished? We should pray, yes, but we need to pray for His strength, insight and godly critical thinking skills (wisdom).

Just like during Noah's day, the times were constantly and terribly evil. While God protected Noah during those very dark days, when God did pour out His wrath in the form of a global flood, God had Noah tucked safely away in the Ark.

Likewise, during the days of Lot, the times were horribly bad there. God seemed to protect Lot as well, but on the day God's wrath poured out, angels needed to remove Lot from the area before judgment could rain down. We honestly have no idea what Noah and Lot went through or had to put up with in their respective days.

The same principle applies to Christians today. If the beginning of the Tribulation (outpouring of God's wrath), is drawing near, I firmly believe God will remove His Church from this earth before He begins pouring out His wrath at the start of the coming seven years. Up until that starting point, we can assume that the level of evil and ferocity will increase but God may or may not protect us through those growing dark times.

In reality, we should not be thinking the PreTrib Rapture is our "escape clause" from the increasing evil because there is no biblical guarantee that God will keep all evil from harming us. We may face persecution. We may face threats against our persons and we may die before the Rapture occurs and before the Tribulation starts. The PreTrib Rapture only allows us to escape God's wrath because we are not appointed to it (1 Thessalonians 5:9). It does not provide escape from either man's wrath or Satan's. We need only look to the book of Job to see that.

In effect, we Christians need to adjust our outlook and perceptions. We need to realize that as long as we remain here, things will increasingly become worse until a tipping point is reached. At the same time, God is still moving hearts to receive His salvation. We are His voice, as we continue to attempt to introduce people to Jesus.

Satan won't stop working. He won't stop hating us. He won't decide to throw in the towel. He will become more resolute.
