Prayer Requests:

- strength and endurance in the planting of a church in Flower Mound
- wisdom for our Elders as they work on our behalf
- our men to be ordained/installed to the offices of Elder and Deacon
- the spiritual growth of our families and for our times of family worship
- our friends at East Texas Reformed Fellowship as they seek a pastor
- our sister churches in the RPCNA and the Midwest Presbytery
- the Manfredas in their adoption and foster care ministry
- the Silva family, for health for Jenny and baby
- the health of Judy Austin, Grace Moore
- the persecuted church overseas
- the gospel to be preached in the Dallas/Fort Worth area
- a national recognition of the Kingship of Christ
- a love for God's law, the keeping and adoring of the Sabbath Day
- that churches would worship God as he has commanded

Dallas Reformed Presbyterian Church

A Mission Church of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America (RPCNA)
2250 Morriss Road, Suite 214 Flower Mound, TX 75028

I will meditate on the glorious splendor of Your majesty,
And on Your wondrous works.
Men shall speak of the might of Your awesome acts,
And I will declare Your greatness.
They shall utter the memory of Your great goodness,
And shall sing of Your righteousness.
Psalm 145:5-7

WLC Q 171: How are they that receive the sacrament of the Lord's supper to prepare themselves before they come unto it? A. They that receive the sacrament of the Lord's supper are, before they come, to prepare themselves thereunto, by examining themselves 1) of their being in Christ, 2) of their sins and wants; 3) of the truth and measure of their knowledge, 4) faith, 5) repentance; 6) love to God and 7) the brethren, 8) charity to all men, 9) forgiving those that have done them wrong; 10) of their desires after Christ, and 11) of their new obedience; and (applying to all 11 that are listed) by renewing the exercise of these graces, by serious meditation, and fervent prayer.

I. What is faith?

WLC Q 72: What is justifying faith? A. Justifying faith is 1) a saving grace, 2) wrought in the heart of a sinner by the Spirit and Word of God, whereby 3) he, being convinced of his sin and misery, and of the disability in himself and all other creatures to recover him out of his lost condition, 4) not only assenteth to the truth of the promise of the gospel, but 5) receiveth and resteth upon Christ and his righteousness, therein held forth, for pardon of sin, and 6) for the accepting and accounting of his person righteous in the sight of God for salvation.

II. The truth of our faith

III. The measure of our faith

WLC Q 45: How doth Christ execute the office of a king? A. Christ executeth the office of a king, in calling out of the world a people to himself, and giving them officers, laws, and censures, by which he visibly governs them; in bestowing saving grace upon his elect, rewarding their obedience, and correcting them for their sins, preserving and supporting them under all their temptations and sufferings, restraining and overcoming all their enemies, and powerfully ordering all things for his own glory, and their good; and also in taking vengeance on the rest, who know not God, and obey not the gospel.

I. The faithfulness of David

a. Christ is the perfect example of faithfulness to his duties

II. The continuing decline of Saul

a. Jealousy, pride, violence, fear

III. The blessing of David

a. Christ is the perfect example of the One blessed because of obedience
