HYMNNOLOGY

An aerial, high-angle photograph of a city street grid, showing a mix of grey asphalt and brown brick-paved streets. The image is slightly blurred and has a soft, hazy atmosphere. Overlaid on this background is a large, bold, black text quote.

“My Sabbaths [Sundays] were spent in the streets at play. So ignorant was I that I did not know there was a God.”

...I was totally ignorant of the word of life when I entered that place of worship; but though I knew not the letter of the law, the Holy Ghost brought the spiritual contents of it into my conscience...”

An aerial, slightly blurred photograph of a city street grid. A prominent church building with a steeple is visible in the center of the grid. The text is overlaid on this image.

“I do not want the chapel, I only want the pulpit; and when I cease to preach Christ, then turn me out of that.”

“The truths I have preached, I am now living upon; and they will do to die upon.”

THE THEOLOGY OF THE HYMN

VERSE 1

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness
I dare not trust the sweetest frame
But a wholly lean in Jesus' name

REFRAIN

On Christ the solid Rock I stand

All other ground is sinking sand

All other ground is sinking sand

VERSE 2

When darkness veils His lovely face
I rest on His unchanging grace
In every high and stormy gale
My anchor holds within the veil

VERSE 3

His oath, His covenant, His blood
Support me in the whelming flood
When all around my soul gives way
He then is all my Hope and Stay

VERSE 4

When He shall come with trumpet sound
Oh may I then in Him be found
Dressed in His righteousness alone
Faultless to stand before the throne
