

Introduction

- I. More important than ever that we fight for sexual purity.
- II. May we be encouraged to fight against this sin that is addressed by the 7th commandment.

Fighting for Sexual Purity

I. Understanding the Good Gift

- A. One of the fiercest, most powerful enemies we face is the enemy we can identify as "Porneia" or "Fornication." This enemy is all sexual immorality.

- B. We fight sexual sin in all of its forms in the single life and in marriage by understanding the theology of sex - God says in His Word that sex is good only within marriage. Why?

- C. What this means for the single life and married life.

II. Fleeing Fornication - we fight this sin by fleeing fornication, as we read in I Cor. 6:18, Col. 3:5

- A. The Word of God calls us to flee from fornication in a world that pursues fornication.

- B. The 7th command calls us to sexual purity in marriage and in the single life (A. 108). How do we fight for sexual purity in our lives?

III. Seeking the Right Motivation

- A. What rightly and properly motivates us to live this way? The glory of God.

- B. What motivates us is the remembrance of our relationship with God.
