

“God, Why Did This Happen To Me?”

Luke 7:36-50

A wounded woman

A broken woman

- Desperation
- Humiliation

A restored woman

The application of God's grace to Wounded lives

- Woundedness - An experience so painful that it becomes a filter and backdrop for my relationships and approach to life.
- Brokenness - An end to self reliance and the liberating awareness that I can't make it without God.

Observations:

- Just because we talk about our wounds doesn't mean the wound has been dealt with.
- We make others pay for our wounds.
- Wounds can turn inward and fill us with pride.

Suggestions:

- Stop denying that it exists.
- Let it drive you to profound forgiveness.
