“For who has known the mind of the Lord” (Romans 11: 34)

If we desire to know and love God as we ought, we MUST recognize that we can not understand all that God is or does.

1. We cannot wait till we understand God to trust Him.

2. We will never know everything about God or why He does what He does.
 - a. The infinite nature of God puts His motivations beyond our finite understanding.

 - b. God’s infinite wisdom & knowledge cannot be compared with the wisest of men.

 - c. God’s infinite goodness & mercy cannot be equaled by the most charitable of men.

3. We can trust that He is good and glorious is all that He is and does.
