Dr. John C. Whitcomb is president of Whitcomb Ministries, Inc., and founder and professor of Christian Workman Schools of Theology. He and his wife Norma reside in Indianapolis, and enjoy spending time with their 6 children and 17 grandchildren.

Dr. Whitcomb has been a professor of Old Testament and theology for more than 50 years, and is widely recognized as a leading Biblical scholar. Norma Whitcomb is a Bible teacher and seminar speaker to ladies in the United States and abroad.

Dr. Whitcomb taught at Grace Theological Seminary in Winona Lake, Indiana, from 1951-1990, and gained much recognition for his work on The Genesis Flood, which he co-authored with Dr. Henry Morris in 1961. This book has been credited as one of the major catalysts for the modern Biblical creationism movement.

Among Dr. Whitcomb's other published works are The Early Earth and The World That Perished, and commentaries on Esther and Daniel. Additionally, he has authored six comprehensive Bible charts, numerous multi-media slides, and a wealth of Biblical and theological articles. Major emphases in his teaching have included Biblical creationism, Old Testament exposition, dispensational theology, premillennial eschatology, and presuppositional apologetics.

Dr. Whitcomb's life and ministry may be summed up in this quotation: "I want to be in the full-time business of finding out what God says and telling as many people as I can."

Whitcomb Ministries, Inc. exists to encourage people to become mature disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ, fully grounded in "all the counsel of God." To that end, the ministry provides many resources to aid believers in an in-depth study of the Bible, declaring its truths from beginning to end. Of course, the ultimate goal of all these activities is to bring glory to the One of whom it is written:

"Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for Thou hast created all things, and for Thy pleasure they are and were created."

~ Revelation 4:11

Fifty-minute talks on the Bible, the Christian life and God's plan for the ages.
Full outlines included. Excellent for home Bible-study sessions, and listening while driving or working at home.
