

Paul and Cursing at Mt Ebal

3:6-7: So You Like Abraham?

Just like Abraham “believed (aorist active indicative) in God and it was credited to him (aorist passive indicative, LOGIZOMAI) unto righteousness (DIKAIOSUNE),” so you must know (present active indicative/imperative, GINWSKW) that those who are from the source of faith, these are sons of Abraham.

3:8-9: What About Before Gen 15?

⁸Now (DE) the Scripture,

as a result of foreseeing that God justifies
the nations from faith,

Evangelized beforehand (PROEUAGGELIZW) to Abraham that, “All the nations will be blessed in you.” (Gen 12:3)

⁹Therefore those who are from faith are being blessed (present passive indicative, EULOGEW) with the believing Abraham.

Gal 3:10: What about the Law?

FOR (explanation that further strengthens the last point)

As many as are from the works of the Law,
They are under a curse (KATARA)

FOR it stands written that

‘Under a curse is everyone who does not remain in all of the things being written in the Book of the Law with the result that he do them’

 - Ἐπικατάρατος πᾶς ὃς οὐκ ἐμμένει ἐν πᾶσιν τοῖς γεγραμμένοις ἐν τῷ βιβλίῳ τοῦ νόμου, τοῦ ποιῆσαι αὐτά.
- LXX of Dt 27:26:
 - ²⁶Ἐπικατάρατος πᾶς ἄνθρωπος, ὃς οὐκ ἐμμενεῖ ἐν πᾶσιν τοῖς λόγοις τοῦ νόμου τούτου τοῦ ποιῆσαι αὐτούς, καὶ ἐροῦσιν πᾶς ὁ λαός Γένοιτο.

אָרוּר אֲשֶׁר לֹא יִקְיִם אֶת דְּבָרֵי הַתּוֹרָה־הַזֹּאת לַעֲשׂוֹת אוֹתָם וְאָמַר כָּל־הַעַם אָמֵן: פ • 26 cursed is whoever does not QUM (hifil)—establish/keep—the words of this teaching (=Law) to do them.

LXX is a literal translation; the Gal “quote” interprets what a DABAR is in this case—the written word, not the spoken word!! Another argument against the oral law. LXX says “man” but Gal 3 is a better translation with “anyone.”

- It seems that Paul 1) makes his own translations and has them memorized or 2) has a different translation memorized.
 - It is fitting for Paul to specify written vs. spoken Law, since the Written is inspired, and the spoken tradition is not.
 - Both translations have taken the Heb infinitive construct and rendered it as a Greek genitival articular infinitive.
- MENW in Greek is interpretive of QUM in the Hebrew hifil stem.

Paul Quotes the Law Again

- Dt 27:26: 26 ‘Cursed is he who does not stand in the words of this law with the result that he does them.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’
- Context: Mt. Ebal and Mt. Gerizim
 - Conquest of the Land by Joshua
 - Dt 11:26-32, Dt 27-28, Josh 8:30-35

The Conditional Covenant: Illustrated

DT 11:26-32

“See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse: 27 the blessing, if you listen to the commandments of the Lord your God, which I am commanding you today; 28 and the curse, if you do not listen to the commandments of the Lord your God, but turn aside from the way which I am commanding you today, by following other gods which you have not known. 29 “It shall come about, when the Lord your God brings you into the land where you are entering to possess it, that you shall place the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal. 30 “Are they not across the Jordan, west of the way toward the sunset, in the land of the Canaanites who live in the Arabah, opposite Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh? 31 “For you are about to cross the Jordan to go in to possess the land which the Lord your God is giving you, and you shall possess it and live in it, 32 and you shall be careful to do all the statutes and the judgments which I am setting before you today.

Observations on the Command

- This command sends them to the heart of the enemy territory across the Jordan.
- It is near the same location where Abraham first built an altar in the Land to the LORD.
- The command is to set the blessings and the curses on Gerizim and Ebal
- The reason is not given; the geography is given.

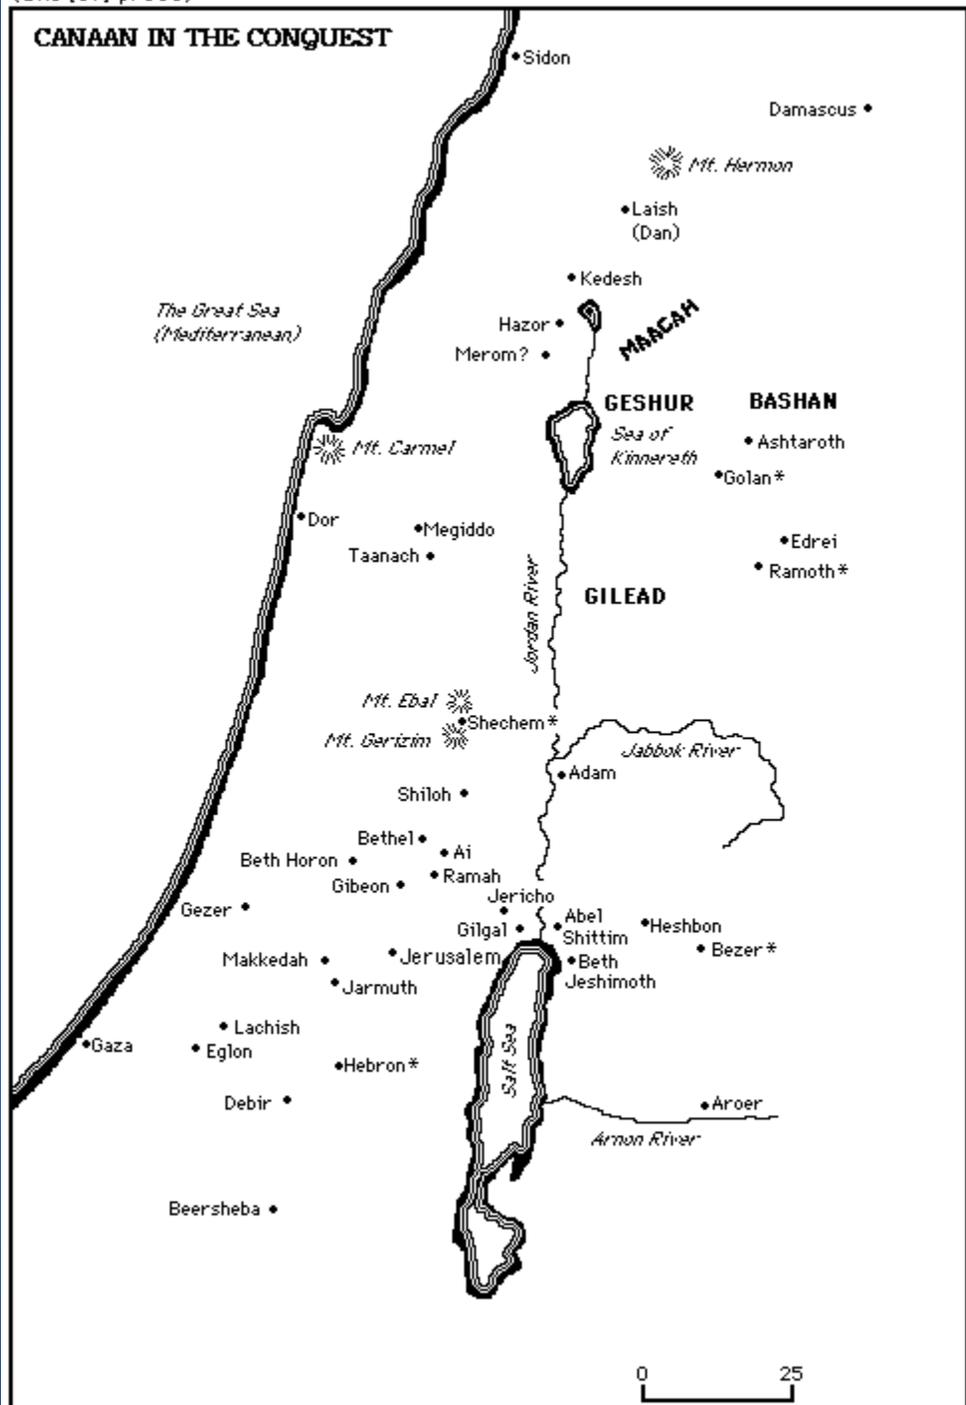

Interpretation of the Command

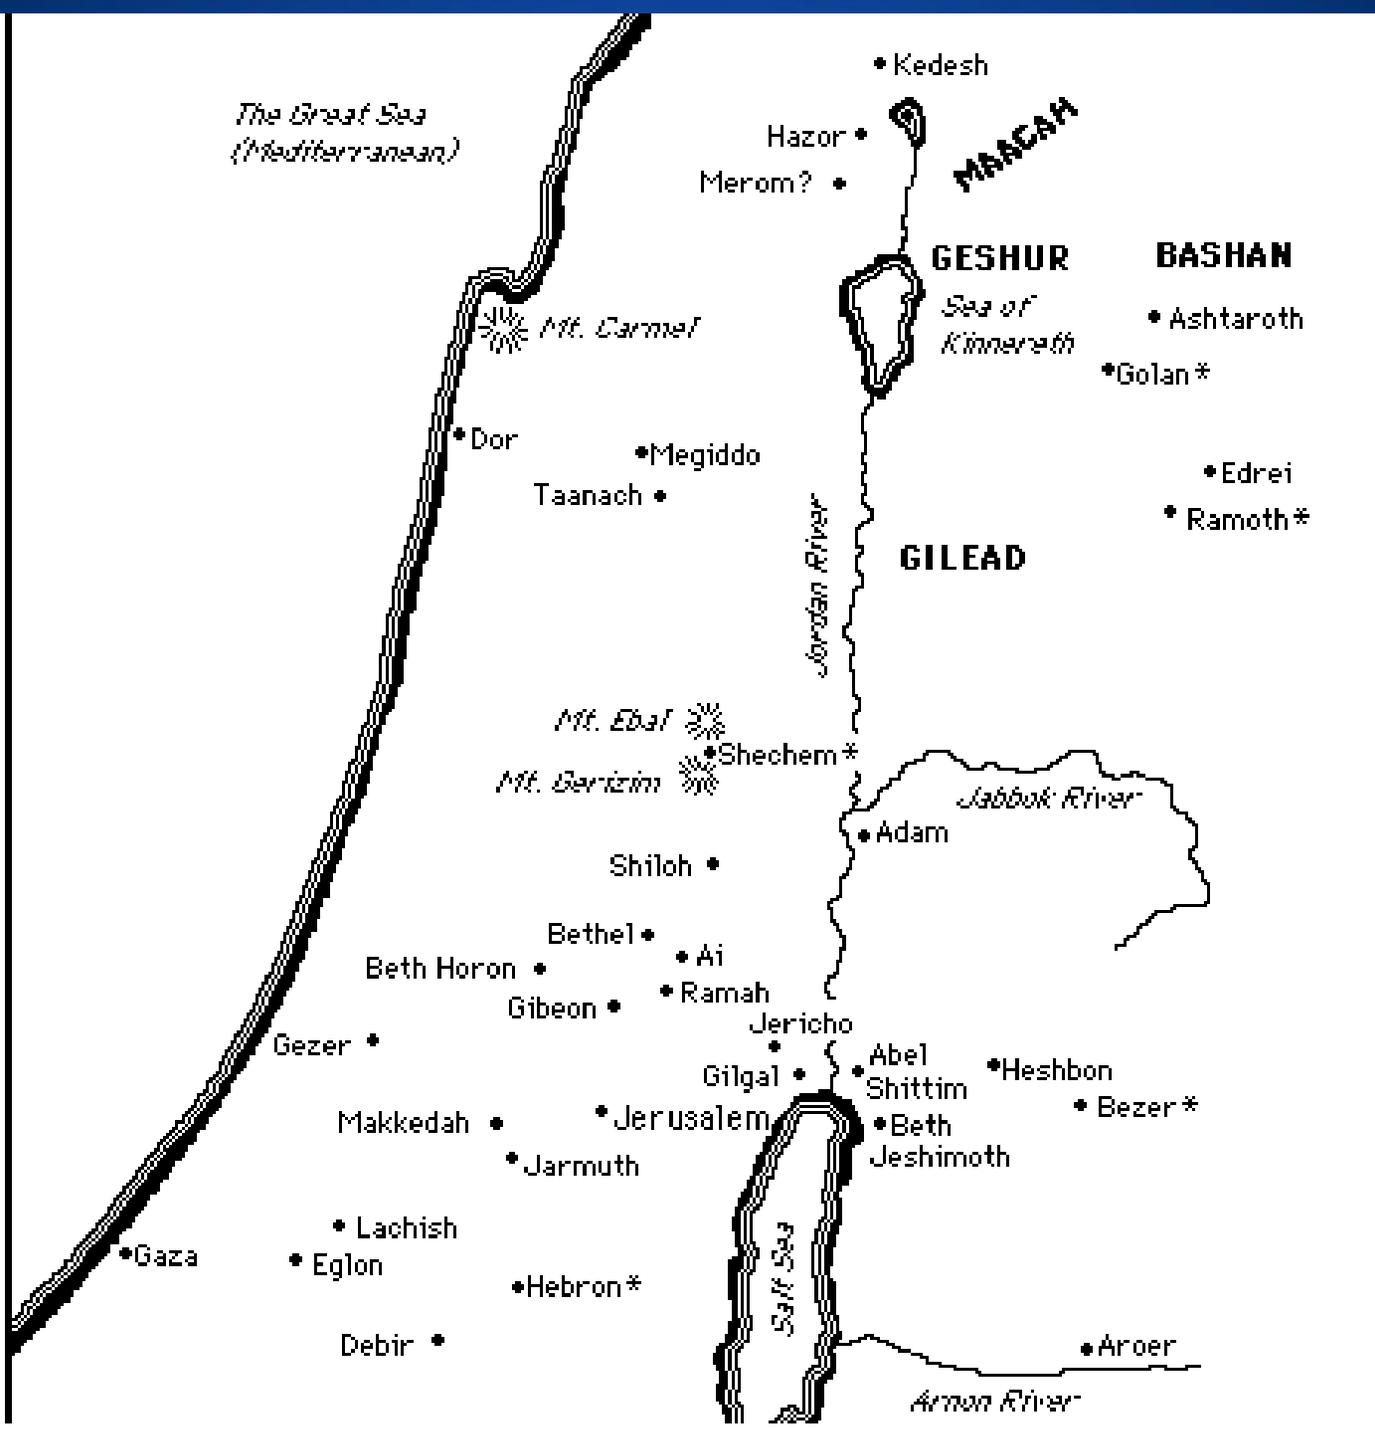

The redeemed Children of Israel were to be set apart to the LORD by means of the Mosaic Law.

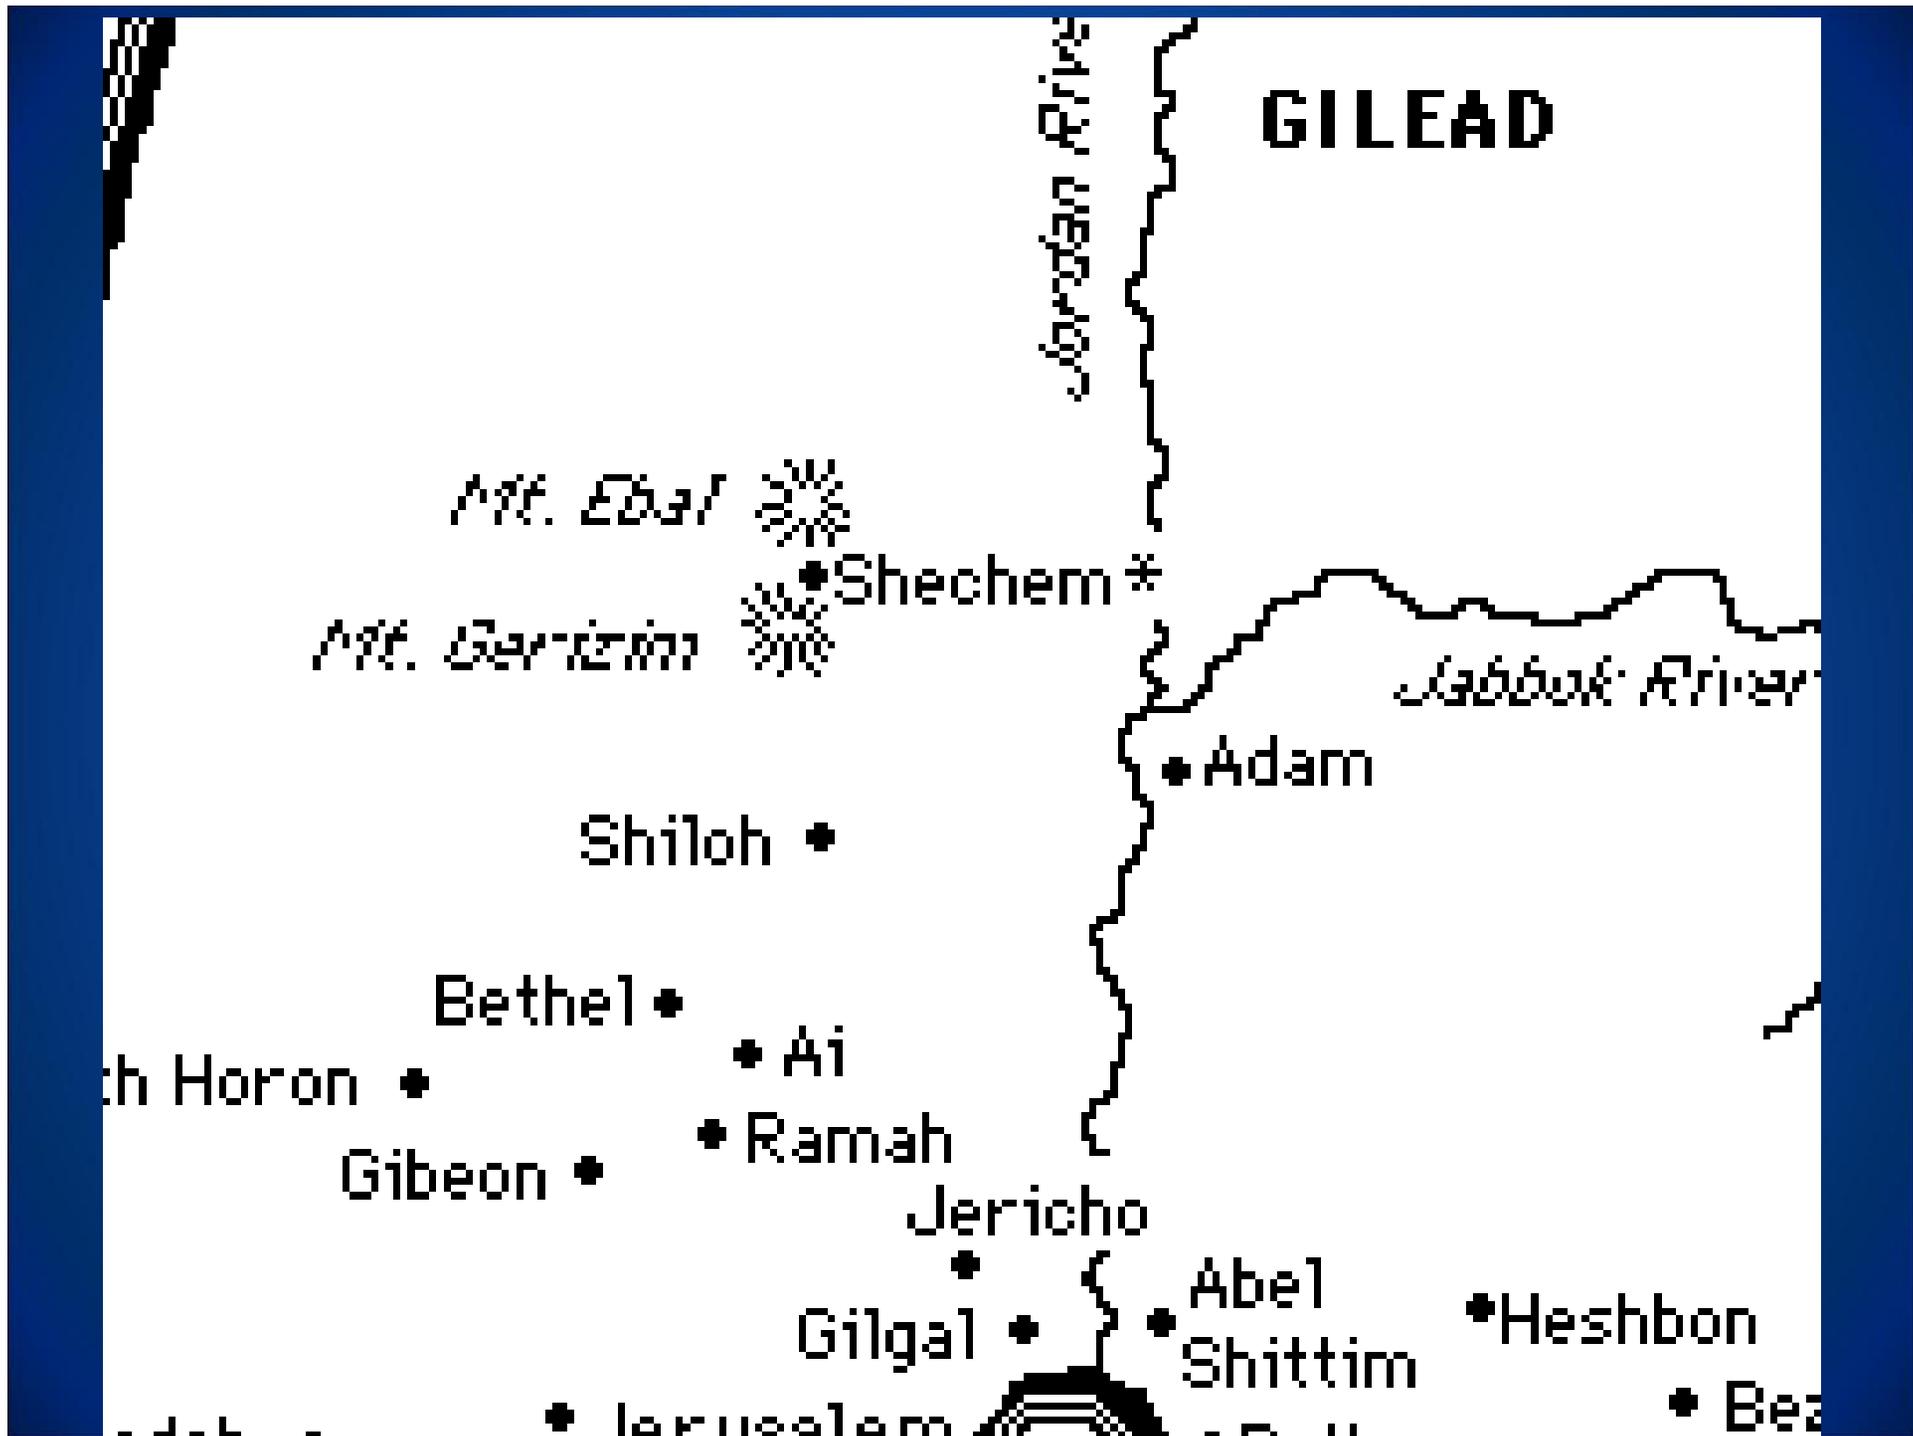

This sanctification was a testimony to God's righteousness, just as their conquest was a testimony to His faithfulness to the Abrahamic Covenant.

The symbolic planting of the Law in the heart of the newly-given territory demonstrated the abiding issue between God and man: man needs righteousness to have fellowship with God.

CANAAN IN THE CONQUEST

The Bookends of Ebal and Gerizim

- Moses repeats the requirement in Dt 27. This makes a frame around the bulk of the commandments in Dt 12-26.

Dt 11: Ebal and Gerizim ceremony upon entering the Land

Dt 12-26: Specific commandments of the Law restated in the Suzerain-Vassal Treaty

Dt 27-28: Ebal and Gerizim ceremony

Deuteronomy 27

1 Then Moses and the elders of Israel charged the people, saying, “Keep all the commandments which I command you today. 2 “So it shall be on the day when you cross the Jordan to the land which the Lord your God gives you, that you shall set up for yourself large stones and coat them with lime 3 and write on them all the words of this law, when you cross over, so that you may enter the land which the Lord your God gives you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as the Lord, the God of your fathers, promised you.

4 “So it shall be when you cross the Jordan, you shall set up on Mount Ebal, these stones, as I am commanding you today, and you shall coat them with lime. 5 “Moreover, you shall build there an altar to the Lord your God, an altar of stones; you shall not wield an iron tool on them. 6 “You shall build the altar of the Lord your God of uncut stones, and you shall offer on it burnt offerings to the Lord your God; 7 and you shall sacrifice peace offerings and eat there, and rejoice before the Lord your God. 8 “You shall write on the stones all the words of this law very distinctly.”

9 Then Moses and the Levitical priests spoke to all Israel, saying, “Be silent and listen, O Israel! This day you have become a people for the Lord your God. 10 “You shall therefore obey the Lord your God, and do His commandments and His statutes which I command you today.”

11 Moses also charged the people on that day, saying, 12 “When you cross the Jordan, these shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin.

13 “For the curse, these shall stand on Mount Ebal: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

14 “The Levites shall then answer and say to all the men of Israel with a loud voice,

15 ‘Cursed is the man who makes an idol or a molten image, an abomination to the Lord, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and sets it up in secret.’ And all the people shall answer and say, ‘Amen.’

16 ‘Cursed is he who dishonors his father or mother.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

17 ‘Cursed is he who moves his neighbor’s boundary mark.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

18 ‘Cursed is he who misleads a blind person on the road.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

19 ‘Cursed is he who distorts the justice due an alien, orphan, and widow.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

20 ‘Cursed is he who lies with his father’s wife, because he has uncovered his father’s skirt.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

21 ‘Cursed is he who lies with any animal.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

22 ‘Cursed is he who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father or of his mother.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

23 'Cursed is he who lies with his mother-in-law.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

24 'Cursed is he who strikes his neighbor in secret.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

25 'Cursed is he who accepts a bribe to strike down an innocent person.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

26 'Cursed is he who does not confirm the words of this law by doing them.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

The Illustration Executed

Joshua 8:30-35

³⁰ Then Joshua built an altar to the Lord, the God of Israel, in Mount Ebal, ³¹ just as Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded the sons of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of uncut stones on which no man had wielded an iron tool; and they offered burnt offerings on it to the Lord, and sacrificed peace offerings.

³² He wrote there on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written, in the presence of the sons of Israel.

33 All Israel with their elders and officers and their judges were standing on both sides of the ark before the Levitical priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the Lord, the stranger as well as the native. Half of them stood in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, just as Moses the servant of the Lord had given command at first to bless the people of Israel.

34 Then afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that is written in the book of the law.

35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel with the women and the little ones and the strangers who were living among them.

Did Joshua Write the Law on the Stones of the Altar?

Dt 27:4 “So it shall be when you cross the Jordan, you shall set up on Mount Ebal, these stones, as I am commanding you today, and you shall coat them with lime.

5 “Moreover, you shall build there an altar to the Lord your God, an altar of stones; you shall not wield an iron tool on them.

6 “You shall build the altar of the Lord your God of uncut stones, and you shall offer on it burnt offerings to the Lord your God;

7 and you shall sacrifice peace offerings and eat there, and rejoice before the Lord your God.

8 “You shall write on the stones all the words of this law very distinctly.”

The Picture

- Mount Ebal represents the curse of the Law.
- On Mt Ebal are the stones with the Law written on them
- Out of those stones they built the altar for the Burnt Offering and the Peace Offering
- The transgression of the Law required the curse, represented by the sacrifice.
 - Burnt offering: dedication of oneself entirely to God; pictures justification or “Phase 1”
 - Peace offering: resultant fellowship between God and man and among God’s people, “Phase 2.”

Gal 3:10

FOR (explanation that further strengthens the last point)

As many as are from the works of the Law,
They are under a curse (KATARA)

FOR it stands written that

‘Under a curse is everyone who does not remain in all of the things being written in the Book of the Law with the result that he do them’

Summary

1. The curse of the Law is the need for sacrifice.
2. Don't think that the Law is "bad" because it curses.
3. The reason it curses is because we fall short of God's righteousness, which is what the Law requires.
4. Sacrifices in the OT were necessary because of the transgression of the Law.
5. In this way, the death of Christ was presented by type
6. There is no sacrifice for sin but Jesus Christ.
7. Since Jesus has taken the curse on Himself, why would anyone ever try to go back to before He came?
8. Major principle of personal evangelism: The worst possible news for Jesus on the Cross (curse) is the best possible news for everyone who believes (blessing).
