SAINTS AND PERFECTION

The life in grace here on earth was not intended to be the place of our perfection.
It is the preparation for it.

The 'perfect' Christian is the one who has a constant sense of his own failure but minded to press towards the mark of perfection.

What is Christian perfection?

To love God with all your heart, mind, soul and strength and your neighbor as yourself. Yet this is never reached while we live with our old flesh. But it is promised as the gift of God's ultimate grace in Christ.

I would rather aim at perfection and fall short of it than aim at imperfection and fully attain it. (Gordon)

A great deal of perfectionism is rotten at the core. (A. A. Hodge)
