Quotes:

“The Scriptures obtain full authority among believers only when men regard them as having sprung from heaven, as if there the living words of God were heard.” (John Calvin)

“One generation believes something, the next generation assumes it. The third generation will deny and forget and deny it.” "As soon as you get to the place where the gospel is that which is merely assumed, you are only a generation and a half from death." (D. A. Carson)

“We have to be continually reminded of what we believe. Neither this belief nor any other will automatically remain alive in your mind. It must be fed. And as a matter of fact, if you examined a hundred people who had lost their faith in Christianity, I wonder how many of them would turn out to have been reasoned out of it by honest argument? Do not most people simply drift away?” (Phillips)
