

Does God Want to Kill Me? Part 2

Judges 13:22-23

sermonaudio.com/vbcny 2/10/2019

www.venicebaptist.com

- I. A Brief Gathering of Key Strands of Thought in the Context Necessary for Our Application of the Text

- II. The Big Picture – How We Can Know at All Times That God Does Not Desire or Intend Our Destruction
 - A. God Has Received Our Worship

 - B. God Has Revealed His Truth to Us

 - C. God Has Given Great and Precious Promises to Us

- III. The Particular Examples – How We Can Know That His Providence Is Not Sent for Our Ruin
 - A. Physical Affliction
 1. God Has Received Our Worship

 2. God Has Revealed His Truth to Us
 - a. Physical affliction was not part of God's good creation, but is the result of sin, and God's purpose for His children is a new creation with no physical affliction.

 - b. Physical affliction, as part of the curse of the fall, is nonetheless blessed and consecrated to the child of God so that it only does Him good.

 - c. Physical affliction is but for a moment in this life, and then we shall never again experience it.

 3. God Has Given Great and Precious Promises to Us