Family Sermon Discussion Questions:

1. In what two ways is the husband to love his wife? What does that mean practically?
2. What does it mean to be the head of the wife? What does it mean to be the spiritual leader in the home?
3. Why does Paul use the word 'reverence' or 'respect' when he speaks about the woman's submission?
4. What is submission? What is it not? How is submission viewed by our culture?
5. How should wives respond to their husband's leadership?
6. Think and meditate on how godly headship and submission is a reflection of Christ and the church. How does that encourage you in your role as a wife or a husband?
7. * Who is called to be the head of the home? Who is called to submit in the home? What is headship and submission and picture of? *

Question for Self-Reflection

- # If you are a husband, what did you learn? What are the areas where you need to grow?
If you are a wife, what did you learn? What are the areas where you need to grow?
