

Probably a former Hindu adherent, Acharya Rajneesh, Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh, born in 1931—and considered to be a prominent guru in the 1980's. He wanted to be known as “teacher”—broadcasting his views via donkey. He was raised by his grandfather. He was obsessed with death at an early age. In 1974, he moved about 100 miles north of Bombay and founded a community, buying several houses—to prepare his people for nuclear holocaust [he admits nobody may survive physically, but all may survive this to be in an almost metaphysical world (enter Christian Science)]. Nudity & free-sex, combined with a type of yoga, were his major attractions and ways of influence.<sup>1</sup> The U.S. Consulate in Bombay, he, the only truly enlightened one,<sup>2</sup> traveled to New York with 17 disciples in an attempt to flee tax evasion penalties in India in 1981.<sup>3</sup> His ultimate goal is to give birth to a super-race. We should not be surprised when he denies any gender of the God and any virtue in Jehovah.

---

<sup>1</sup>Ravi Zacharias Kingdom of the Cults (2003), 391.

<sup>2</sup>Ibid., 397.

<sup>3</sup>Ibid., 394.