

Getting Right with God: God's Gift of Righteousness

Romans 3:21-26

March 27, 2022

How can I get right with God?

The two convictions that make this question urgent are ...?

All earthly religions are trying to answer this question.

But, many in our day, simply do not see the need to get right with God.

Modern man has no answers to the ultimate questions.

The Righteousness of God has been manifested

What is this righteousness of God?

Most people still operate on the self-righteous principle.

We cannot weave a perfect righteousness; but Jesus can.

Righteousness achieved - Romans 3:21

Righteousness offered - Romans 1:17

This perfect righteousness is given, freely, as a gift, to all who believe. v 22

Why is it offered as a gift?

The glory of God? What does it mean to fall short of it?

This perfect righteousness from God, justifies us before God.

Forgiveness shuts the gates of hell for you.

Righteousness opens the gates of heaven for you.

Justification, v 24-26

Where does it come from?

What is the ground, the basis, the foundation of our justification?

What does propitiation mean?

How do we embrace justification? Faith
