

Hold Your Tongues

I – Our public gatherings exist to build people up a – They are for edification

b – They are for exhortation

c – They are for consolation

Hold Your Tongues

- II – In order to build people up, our public gatherings must be understandable
 - a – An example from musical instruments
 - b – An example from the battlefield
 - c – An example from human languages

Hold Your Tongues

III – Therefore, in our public gatherings, we must prioritize intelligibility over ostentation a – For the sake of believers in the gathering

b – For the sake of inquirers in the gathering