

Hebrews 11:1-7

- 10:39-12:2 is focused on encouraging the readers to continue in confidence (hypostasis, also 3:14) and endure (hupomone)
 - 10:39 – “We however are not of those who draw back to destruction, but are of those who have faith and preserve their souls.”
 - 12:1,2 – “Let us run with endurance the race that is set before us , looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith.”
- Definition and identification of faith in verses 11:1,2,6 –
 - Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for.
 - (faith is) the conviction of things not seen.
 - By it (faith) the people of old received their commendation.
 - Without faith it is impossible to please him (God)
 - Whoever would draw near to God must believe:
 - that he exists and
 - that he rewards those who seek him
- Examples of those how lived and performed because of faith in verses 11:3,4,5,7 –
 - By faith we...UNDERSTAND
 - By faith Abel...OFFERED and WAS COMMENDED AS RIGHTEOUS
 - By faith Enoch...PLEASED GOD and WAS TAKEN UP
 - By faith Noah...BUILT AN ARK and CONDEMNED THE WORLD

Hebrews 11:1 – “Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.”

εἰμί δέ πίστις ἐλπίζω ὑπόστασις πρᾶγμα ἔλεγχος οὐ λέπω now is faith of things being hoped reality of things proof not being seen

Faith is now. Faith is in the present.

ὑπόστασις - hypostasis - “reality” - “a support, substance, steadiness, assurance”

- NIV “being sure”
- KJ “substance”
- American Standard Version “assurance”
- Weymouth “confident assurance”
- Rotherham’s “confidence”
- Berkley “faith forms a solid ground for what is hoped for”
- Montgomery “title-deed”
- The Linguistic Key says: “Assurance. The word has a number of connotations and usages: essence, reality, substance, foundation, or confidant assurance, hope or guarantee, attestation, as in documents that attest or provide evidence of ownership”

- This word has been used twice in Hebrews:
 - 1:3 where the Son is said to be the exact representation of God’s hupostasis (translated: “being”)
 - 3:14 where the believers are told to hold firmly till the end the hupostasis (translated: “confidence”)
- The meaning of this word can be objective or subjective:
 - Objective (KJ, NEB) where it speaks of “substance” or “reality”. This is the use of hupostasis in 1:3.
 - Subjective (ERV RSV) where it speaks of “assurance” or “confidence”. This is the use of hupostasis in 3:14. Read Paul in Romans 8:24 “hope that is seen is no hope at all.”

ἔλεγχος - elenchos - means “evidence” “proof” “certain”

- This word is found in ancient papyri of legal proofs of an accusation.
- elenchos has the same two-fold meaning as the English word “conviction”
 - 2 Tim. 3:16 where it is the conviction or refutation of error
 - Also it means “assurance, conviction or evidence” as is the case with Moses in 11:27 where Moses “saw him who is invisible.”

“do not see” is used because the promises are:

1. Spiritual
2. Future

Faith is “conviction or proof of the things that are not seen”

- Faith has conviction, evidence or proof of what it is trusting in and what it is waiting for.
- Faith is a confidence that something in the future that is not yet seen or measurable that has been promised will “soon” manifest to be experienced and seen.
- Faith is confident trust in God as revealed in his Word.
- Faith trusts in God’s unseen realities. (For example, the universe at one point was an unseen reality only known by God.)
- Faith is NOT blind.
- Faith is NOT contrary to Reality
- Faith is NOT a vague hope based only in your imagination
- Faith is NOT wishful thinking.
- Faith is NOT you wishing the world and situations would match your desires or baseless preconceived expectations.

11:2 – “For by it the people of old received their commendation.

1. “commended for” or “obtained witness” is aorist indicative passive which means someone else testified to their faith. That someone else is God.
 - a. People with faith received commendation, or a good recommendation or a good testimony, from God.
 - b. God provided a character witness for these people because of their faith. They believed what God said before they could see it.
2. “elders” is the list of names that follows in chapter 11.
3. The author is describing what faith looks like in the life of a believer.

11:3 – “By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible.

by faith we understand to have been adjusted the ages word of God so as not out things appearing the thing being seen to have become

1. To understand anything about faith and reality we must understand that it all began when God spoke. Everything that is seen comes from the unseen.
 - a. This is ex nihilo (Latin for “from nothing”) which is the doctrine that God made things out of nothing other than his will and his word.

- b. The Greek/Roman cosmology (the science of the origin and development of the universe) of 63 AD taught that matter existed eternally. And, the gods organized the visible universe out of some kind of visible, preexisting matter.
- c. Verses that support Hebrews 11:3 are:
- i. Genesis 1:1 – “In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.”
 - ii. Psalm 33:6, 9 – “By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, their starry host by the breath of his mouth....For he spoke, and it came to be; he commanded, and it stood firm.
 - iii. he commanded, and it stood firm.
 - iv. Psalm 90:2 – “Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the whole world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.
 - v. John 1:3 – “Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made.
 - vi. Acts 14:15 – “Friends, why are you doing this? We too are only human, like you. We are bringing you good news, telling you to turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made the heavens and the earth and the sea and everything in them.”
 - vii. Romans 4:17 – “As it is written: “I have made you a father of many nations.”[a] He is our father in the sight of God, in whom he believed—the God who gives life to the dead and calls into being things that were not.”
 - viii. Colossians 1:16 – “For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him.”
2. Faith is the doorway into reality. Faith is not fantasy, but confidence in the truth. In this case the truth comes to us in the forms of promises or the word of God
3. νοιέω “understand” expresses a mental perception and not a sensuous perception.
4. καταρτίζω “was formed” or “to have been adjusted” speaks of the creation and its vast variety and its unity. The tense of the word indicates this is still seen in creation.
5. αἰών “ages” speaks of Time and Space
6. ῥῆμα “Rhema” or “word” “utterance” is the spoken word and is not logos
7. Romans 1:20 Paul says we can perceive or understand the invisible through having seen the visible:
 “For since the creation of the world God’s invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that people are without excuse.”

11:4 – “By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he was commended as righteous, God commending him by accepting his gifts. And through his faith, though he died, he still speaks.
