1835

November

Third Texian Consultation at San Felipe

1st - general consultation met, but did not have a quorum

3rd - general consultation formally convened

Branch T. Archer, president

Nov 7th adopted a declaration of adherence to the 1824 constitution [read aloud]

-need for independence seemed inevitable, but still premature

-the people were not all ready for such a change

-Texas needed the sympathy and aid of the world, so independence would need to be very obviously justified

Nov 13th ordinance "establishing a provisional government"

-Henry Smith governor, with a council of 12

-Sam Houston commander-in-chief

-Edward Burleson Major General in command of volunteer forces at San Antonio

-Austin and others commissioners to U.S.

Henry Smith inaugural address, conclusion

I conclude, gentlemen, by expressing the hope that the Supreme Ruler of Nations will smile upon your council, and that by our united efforts, we will be enabled to place Texas in a situation to become what the God of nature designed her to be, a land of liberty and of laws-of agriculture and of commerce-the pride and support of our lives, and a legacy of price unspeakable to posterity.

Siege of San Antonio continued, with skirmishes in surrounding area

-Colonel Jim Bowie providing leadership

25th

- Austin resigned command of the army to begin work as commissioner to US

-Colonel Edward Burleson elected to succeed him as General

Individuals and companies being recruited, fitted out, and dispatched from New Orleans

December

-General Edward Burleson in overall command

4th - "Who will go with old Ben Milam into San Antonio?"

5th - assault on San Antonio led by Milam

-Colonel Ben Milam, killed during the battle

-Colonel Frank W. Johnson elected to replace Milam

10th - Mexicans surrendered; terms of surrender very generous and humane
