

- I. "There is always a deeper lesson"
- II. Last time - "Repentance is required!"
- III. Story in two acts
  - A. The Perfection (Luke 13:10-13)
  - B. The problem (Luke 13:14-17)
- IV. The perfection (vs 10-13)
  - A. Jesus heals the disabled woman perfectly
    1. She gives glory to God
- V. The problem
  - A. The religious leaders demand perfect adherence to the law
    1. They do not do what they demand of others
    2. When they encounter true perfection, they reject it
- VI. The lessons
  - A. Jesus heals
  - B. Jesus has authority over demons
  - C. We should all examine our loves for hypocrisy
  - D. The law is a good thing but should not be used to control others
    1. A law that lacks grace and mercy is nothing more than legalism
- VII. The deeper lesson
