Isaac is the child of _____

What catches our attention in Gen. 27? Is it not Rebekah's scheming and Jacob's _____?

The writer shows how Isaac's faith really was the 11:1 and 11: _____ kind.

Perfect faith? No. Lots of _____ mixed in.

Jacob's faith is expressed in his _____

He adopts Ephraim and Manasseh as his _____

Jacob expressed his _____ through worship.

Joseph's whole life was marked by incredible faith and _____

Egypt was not his _____, although he had lived there from age 17 onward.

He speaks of the Exodus based on God's covenant _____

He gave orders concerning his _____

He was confident of the Exodus because faithful is He who _____

Each of these three episodes have two things in common: they are dying, coming to the end of their _____ and they all speak of things to _____, based on the promises of God.

The promises were so certain to them that when it came time for them to die, they spoke things which revealed their true _____.

It is faith in what God is going to _____ that should determine what we think and how we _____ now.
