

Resurrection Results
1 Corinthians 15.20-34

Introduction

Christ's resurrection sets in motion a process by which all God's ransomed people will be raised with Him at the end

1. The results of a representative life [vv20-22].
2. A long-term process begun, but far from complete [vv23-26].
3. The end result is evidence of God's eternal rule [vv27-28].
4. Resurrection significance for the short term [v29].
5. Resurrection significance in daily living [vv30-32\]
6. Unbelief about the Resurrection evidences an unbelieving life [vv33-34].