

Readings from Mark chapter 4—April 14th-20th, 2019

Sunday: 10 But when He was alone, those around Him with the twelve asked Him about the parable. Pray that you would want to know more about Christ and His teaching. Pray for John Ryce, slated to be ordained and installed as the newest ruling elder at Grace RPC, Gibsonia, Pa. Pray for Birmingham (Ala.) RPC, that they would grow in grace and in numbers.

Monday: 11 And He said to them, “To you it has been given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God; but to those who are outside, all things come in parables, 12 so that ‘Seeing they may see and not perceive, And hearing they may hear and not understand; Lest they should turn, And their sins be forgiven them.’” Pray that Christ would reveal to you the secret of His covenant. Pray for more deacons for Trinity RPC, Burtonsville, Md.

Tuesday: 13 And He said to them, “Do you not understand this parable? How then will you understand all the parables? 14 The sower sows the word.” Pray that the gospel would be sown throughout the world, and in our area. Pray for wisdom for the RPCNA Education & Publication Board as it meets next week; pray for Daniel Howe, as he presides, and for the new Board members.

Wednesday: 15 “And these are the ones by the wayside where the word is sown. When they hear, Satan comes immediately and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts.” Pray that the devil would not be able to snatch away the word that is preached. Pray for the older members at Fulton (N.Y.) RPC.

Thursday: 16 “These likewise are the ones sown on stony ground who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with gladness; 17 and they have no root in themselves, and so endure only for a time. Afterward, when tribulation or persecution arises for the word's sake, immediately they stumble.” Pray that persecuted believers would be faithful. Pray that Jorge Klajnbart of Springs RPC, Colorado Springs, Colo., would be sustained in his battle with cancer.

Friday: 18 “Now these are the ones sown among thorns; they are the ones who hear the word, 19 and the cares of this world, the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.” Pray that you and your loved ones would be kept from temptation, and would be enabled to root out the weeds that would choke the good word. Pray for the young people and their Sabbath school teachers at Stillwater (Okla.) RPC; and pray for Vacation Bible School preparations.

Saturday: 20 “But these are the ones sown on good ground, those who hear the word, accept it, and bear fruit: some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred.” Pray for Mrs. Debra Goerner of the Orlando (Fla.) RPC who is pregnant with her sixth child; pray that the Lord would strengthen and sustain her, and that the child will be healthy and strong. Pray for the ministry of the word at APF, that it would bring forth an abundant harvest.

Catechism Questions & Answers

Q. 94. What is baptism? A. Baptism is a sacrament, wherein the washing with water in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, doth signify and seal our ingrafting into Christ, and partaking of the benefits of the covenant of grace, and our engagement to be the Lord’s.

Q. 95. To whom is baptism to be administered? A. Baptism is not to be administered to any that are out of the visible church, till they profess their faith in Christ, and obedience to him; but the infants of such as are members of the visible church are to be baptized.

Q. 33. What is justification? A. Justification is an act of God’s free grace, wherein he pardoneth all our sins, and accepteth us as righteous in his sight, only for the righteousness of Christ imputed to us, and received by faith alone.

Acts 2:38-39 “Why Do We Baptize Babies?” (Part 2)

Theme: The Bible tells us that children of believers should be baptized.

I. The Sign of the New Covenant is Baptism—circumcision = baptism

II. Everyone in the Covenant Should Have the Sign of the Covenant

III. Children of Believers are Members of the Covenant Community

IV. Therefore, Children of Believers Should Be Baptized

V. Supporting Evidence

A. Day of Pentecost (Acts 2:38-39)

1. the promise is to you and your children—how would a Jewish audience have understood the message?
2. the covenant ideal is assumed
3. why would the New Covenant be less gracious than the Old?

B. instances of household/family baptisms

1. Acts 16:14-15; 16:33; I Corinthians 1:16
2. baptism was a family affair, not an individualistic one

C. other verses: Isaiah 65:22f; Matthew 19:13ff; I Corinthians 7:14

D. church history confirms it

1. the early church fathers believed in it: Hippolytus of Rome; Origen; Cyprian; Chrysostom; Augustine; Council of Carthage
2. Samuel Miller’s comment

VI. Answering Objections

Application

A. take baptism seriously

B. it’s not just a duty but a great joy to have one’s child baptized

1. God has commanded that His name be placed upon your child
2. it’s a sign/seal of God’s care for your child throughout his/her life
3. it is a sign of hope—that God’s grace is available for wicked sinners who deserve hell

Although hypocrites and other unregenerate men may vainly deceive themselves with false hopes and carnal presumptions of being in the favor of God, and estate of salvation (which hope of theirs shall perish): yet such as truly believe in the Lord Jesus, and love Him in sincerity, endeavouring to walk in all good conscience before Him, may, in this life, be certainly assured that they are in the state of grace, and may rejoice in the hope of the glory of God, which hope shall never make them ashamed.—Westminster Confession of Faith, Chapter XVIII, Paragraph 1.
