

Resurrection Expectations 1 Corinthians 15.35-58

Introduction

What God does is infinitely greater than our present senses can grasp.

1. Don't limit God to your experience or understanding [35-38].
2. God organized similar material differently for his creation purposes [39-41].
3. The resurrection body will be a different kind of body because there will be a different kind of existence [42-44].
4. As certain as earthly life is marked by sin and weakness is the assurance eternal life will be marked by glory [45-49].
5. Major changes must take place before you can fully experience & enjoy the life in the kingdom of God [50-57].
6. The certainty of a glorious future expects your devotion now [58].
