

CARE Group Questions: 4-19-2020

1. Which incident in Peter's life is most relatable to you in your own life?
2. What did Peter give up in order to follow Jesus? How is this instructive in your own walk with Jesus?
3. Why is Peter a natural choice as spokesman for the apostles? Why is he not?
4. How does the portrayal of Peter, warts and all, in the gospels speak to the believability of the narrative?
5. Have you ever believed something about yourself, as Peter did at the Last Supper, only to have reality bring you back to earth? How does the Lord use incidences like this in our own lives to make us more dependent upon Him?