

JOB
Zophar's First Discourse
Job 11:1-20

Mac Williams, Pastor
April 15, 2012

1. Zophar's speech.

11:1-6 Zophar accuses Job of _____ God with his words and appeals to God to defend His honor against Job's insults.

11:7-12 Because of the infinite wisdom and knowledge of God, justice will certainly be done. The _____
will not go free.

"(Zophar) would have made better use of his excellent doctrine of the incomprehensibility of God if he had humbly recognized the limitations of _____ _____ knowledge of divine providence and had not presumed to understand Job's sufferings to perfection." - Meredith Kline

11:13-20 If Job will thoroughly _____,
then God will restore his former prosperity.

2. Zophar's helpful counsel on God-honoring

- _____.
- a. Prayerfully allow God to search your _____ for sinful motivations.
- 1) It is _____ hearts that drive sinful
behavior.
- 2) " _____ is when we act as if something below God could make us happy without God, or that God cannot make us happy without the addition of something else." - Stephen Charnock
- b. By the Spirit of God, daily and intentionally put away the _____ that so easily entangles you.
- " _____ it with detestation and a holy indignation, steadfastly resolving not to return to it, nor ever to have anything more to do with it."
- Matthew Henry
- c. The _____ will be a holy confidence, steadfast trust, and a faith that perseveres in the Lord
- "If we duly remember our sins, we shall, in comparison with them, forget our misery, much more if we obtain the comfort of a sealed _____
and a settled peace." - Matthew Henry*
- d. You will be able to offer wisdom and help to
