

“Jesus Or The Devil”

Thinking Clearly About Invasions In The Unseen World.

Luke 11:14-26

In June of 1858 more than 1,000 delegates convened at the Illinois statehouse to elect Abraham Lincoln as the Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate. That night Lincoln gave one of his most famous speeches, which included the phrase “a house divided.” Lincoln applied this principle from Luke 11:17-18 to the entire nation! Today we see Jesus’ strategic – and even confrontational – work as he _____ the kingdom of the Invader. See how Jesus speaks the truth into controversy. Consider carefully what spirit has taken residence in your heart!

I. The _____-Mongers: When power-hungry people label what is good _____ (v 14-19).

1. This _____ begins within a very _____ miracle story: verse ____.
2. All the people agreed Jesus had _____ a _____. But HOW ... and WHY?
3. “Beelzebul” an ancient name for the _____ of _____. This was _____!
4. Jesus’ ‘ _____ ’ speech destroyed _____ (2 Cor. 10:5)!

II. The _____ of God: The Father’s _____ breaking into history (v 20-23).

1. The finger of God denotes his sovereign power (Ex. 8:19; 31:18) _____.
2. Do you believe the Kingdom of God _____ us in Jesus Christ?
3. The _____ is Satan. Jesus has stripped off his _____ (cf. Eph. 6:11, 13).
4. All true believers must be _____ and _____ with Jesus.

III. The _____ Of A Vacuum: Why The Spirit Must Fill A Heart With Faith (v 24-26).

1. How do you view the _____? Jesus views it as _____.
2. Do you take spiritual warfare seriously?
3. What is that with which you are filling your heart?
4. Have you been “born again to a living hope?” (1 Peter 1:3).
5. Are you _____ (Galations 2:16)? Is Christ _____(Galatians 4:19)?