1. In a grand _____ to the visions just completed, the Lord reveals to Zechariah the work of the Messiah as being a Priest who is also a King.

2. In order to accomplish the salvation of sinners, Jesus Christ fulfilled the office of Priest in unique and glorious ways.

a. To be qualified as Priest, Jesus Christ had to be, _____ holy, and divine.

“The altar of Christ’s divine nature sanctified the sacrifice of His death, and made it of infinite value.”
- Thomas Watson

b. To serve the office of Priest, Jesus Christ had to suffer a _____ death to meet the demands of God’s holy justice regarding the sins of men against His divine Law.

“The atonement is necessary not merely because God chose to save in this way, but because God’s character will not allow men to be saved in any other way.”
- Sam Waldron

*“If God was thus severe to His own Son, how dreadful will He be one day to His _____!
Such as died in willful impenitence, must feel the same wrath as Christ did; and because they cannot bear it at once, therefore they must endure it for ever.”*
- Thomas Watson

3. As the resurrected Priest, Jesus the exalted Christ, sits and rules as _____.

a. Jesus Christ was resurrected as the Father’s affirmation that _____ had been accomplished.

“The resurrection was God’s thundering ‘Amen!’ to Jesus’ loud cry, ‘It is finished’.” - Albert Martin

b. Jesus Christ was exalted to _____ at the right hand of God the Father as the conquering Priest King.

c. Jesus Christ ... “rules over this world as the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, causing all things to work together for His _____.” - James Boyce
