

Baptism and the Resurrection

Matthew 28:19-20 The Great Commission

Romans 6:1-3

I. Baptism Looks Forward to Our Own Future Resurrection

Matthew 3:11-17 (See also Luke 3:3 and acts 19:4, “baptism of repentance”)

Mark 10:35-38 Here Jesus described His coming death by means of two metaphors: 1) as a cup that He must drink, and 2) as a baptism that He must undergo.

Mark 14:36 “Abba, Father, all things are possible for You. Take this cup away from Me; nevertheless, not what I will, but what You will.” (See also Isaiah 51:17; Mark 8:34)

Luke 12:50 “But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how distressed I am till it is accomplished!”

Romans 6:3-8

II. Baptism Reminds Us That We Live Now in the Power of Jesus' Resurrection

Romans 6:4-8

Philippians 3:8-11

Colossians 2:11-12
