

FAITHFUL MEN

1 Samuel 19

WEEK #: 14

I will raise up
for myself a faithful
priest, who will do according to what is in my heart and mind.

I will firmly establish his
priestly house,
and they will
minister before
my anointed one always.

1 Samuel 2:35

Men, 1 Samuel 19 is an amazing look, for us as men, at accountability and friendship. As men, we are faced with many responsibilities. If you are like me you attempt to do many of these alone, just trying to accomplish them as fast and as efficiently as I can. As a result we can become overwhelmed by life and can find ourselves isolated. We need help. Many times we need a spokesman and a watchman. 1 Samuel 19 teaches us about the need to have another man speak on our behalf and the need for others to watch over us and our families making sure we stay the course.

1. People speak on our behalf many times, many of those times with us completely unaware of what is being said. How would you answer these questions; who do people say that you are? What do others say is your greatest God attribute?
2. Do you have a spokesman in your life? In what areas of your life do you need someone speaking on your behalf to God and others?
3. In what areas of your life would you be ashamed of people speaking about?
4. Do you have a watchman in your life? Do you have another man whom you have asked to pray over your family, your marriage, your job, and etc.? In what areas of your life do you need someone to hold you accountable (watch)?

As Faithful Men we have a calling to not only lead our homes, families, businesses, and communities but also a call to lead through the difficult times. We are called to be “faithful” to the God who provides us with a savior and a heavenly reward. We are called to band together and seek wisdom and accountability.

You’re doing great! Keep peeling back the onion and exposing your heart to God’s grace, healing and leadership.

Have a blessed week,
Greg
