

What is a Biblical Church?

Heb 10:24-25

And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

(KJV)

Every believer needs the fellowship, support and encouragement of other Christians. We depend on each other because God says we are “members one of another” (Romans 12:4-5). Because of this, our LORD expects each one of us to be committed members of a church. However, you should not join just any church. Even though no church is absolutely perfect (since we are all sinners saved by grace), a good church will seek to honor God and His Word.

What is a Biblical Church? What does a Biblical Church look like, sound like, act like? The Apostle Paul in the Pastoral Epistles of I & II Timothy and Titus give us the answer:
