

ISAIAH
The Church and the Nations
Isaiah 2:1-4

Mac Williams, Pastor
April 12, 2015

1. God has ordained a certain and glorious future for His _____.

- a. Isaiah's prophecy concerns the time between Christ's first and second comings, which is the _____ stage of human history.

- b. The church will be established as the place of the _____ prominent influence among all the nations of the world.

2. God's work of transforming _____ has life changing results in peoples all over the world.

- a. When the Lord changes a person's life, they have a desire to see _____ come to faith in Christ as well.

- b. All over the world, people _____ their idolatry and false beliefs and turn to the Lord.

- c. The church is recognized as the place where _____ is understood and applied to life.

"God and God _____ can teach the truth, for He only is the source and foundation of truth. Hence, those who proclaim the Word of God must exercise supreme care that what they preach is the Word of God." - Edward Young

3. As the church faithfully instructs people in the Word of God, amazing judicial and social _____ will take place all over the world.

- a. Judgments and decisions that are made within a nation will be made in dependence on the Word of God, thus insuring _____ and justice for all.

- b. Genuine _____ between nations will become common.

*"The gospel of Christ, as far as it _____, disposes men to be peaceable, softens men's spirits, and sweetens them; and the love of Christ, shed abroad in the heart, constrains men to love one another."
- Matthew Henry*