

English Bible Translations and the Sufficiency of Scripture Pt. 1

William Einwechter

Introduction

- I. Determine the place of the Hebrew Old Testament and the Greek New Testament in the doctrine of sufficiency of Scripture.
 1. The Old Testament was originally written in Hebrew and Aramaic
 2. The New Testament was originally written in Greek
 3. The Hebrew Scriptures of the OT and the Greek Scriptures of the NT are together the infallible Word of God and the final standard of truth, doctrine, and practice.
- II. Determine if an English translation of the Hebrew and the Greek Scriptures of the Scriptures can be considered the Word of God.
- III. Identify the primary biblical standards for judging English Bible translations.
 1. The Doctrine of verbal-plenary inspiration of Scriptures.
 2. The Doctrine of the providential preservation of Scriptures.
