

Honoring our Mothers

A Mother

who loves her God and lives her faith is a blessing to her children.

“All your children shall be taught by the Lord,
and great shall be the peace of your children.”

Isaiah 54:13

May 14, 2023

MINISTERS - EVERY MEMBER

MORNING SERMON NOTES

THE REST OF THE STORY

SPEAKER: PASTOR KEN ENDEAN

TEXT: RUTH 4:13-22

God's lovingkindness and redemptive work is displayed to frail individuals who trust in Him.

- I. God provides _____ to those who follow Him (v. 13).
 - A. Biblical _____ provides a solid foundation for the difficulties of life.
 - B. _____ are a blessing from the Lord.
 - C. Godly homes must display _____ in God rather than _____ of circumstances or culture.
- II. God provides comfort to those who are experiencing life's _____ (vv. 14-16).
 - A. Bitterness causes doubt of God's _____.
 - B. Bitterness can result in giving _____.
 - C. Bitterness is cured by recognizing God's providential _____.
 - D. Bitterness that is conquered should result in _____ God and _____ in others.
- III. God provides for the future through _____ Godly offspring who will faithfully serve Him (vv. 17-22).
 - A. God's grace is greater than your _____.
 - B. God's purpose is greater than your _____.
 - C. God's redemptive plan extends to the _____ and for His _____.

EVENING SERMON NOTES

ROMANS: GRASPING THE GOSPEL

The Rejection of the Gospel and the Glory of God

TEXT: ROMANS 9-11

Problem: One of the greatest discouragements in the preaching of the Gospel is its _____ by people who know the truth.

Theological Truth: Human unbelief does not invalidate the Gospel, but rather _____ it.

Response: We must trust the _____, _____, and _____ of God even when people reject and resist our message.

Theological perspective:

- _____ is primary, theology is _____.
- There are constructive tensions in theology.
 - Salvation is by _____
 - Salvation is through _____
- There are mysteries in theology. Note: a mystery is not a contradiction.
 - God is _____
 - God is _____
 - There is _____ in the world

1. From the human perspective, the rejection of the Gospel is a profound _____ (9:1-5) (See also 10:1).

Key teaching: God sincerely and fervently desires people to be saved.

2. The rejection of the Gospel confirms that salvation is by _____ (9:6-31).

Key teaching: God is gracious and just in _____ and in _____.

Key verses: 9:16, 22-24.

3. The rejection of the Gospel confirms that salvation is through _____ (9:32-10:21).

Key teaching: Humans are fully _____ for their rejection of the Gospel.

Key verses: 10:12-13.

4. The rejection of the Gospel confirms that salvation is for God's _____ (11:1-32).

Key teaching: God is so good, powerful, and wise that He turns tragedy into triumph.

Key verses: 11:31-32

5. From the heavenly perspective, the rejection of the Gospel displays God's incomprehensible _____ (11:33-36).

Key Teaching: God's ways are infinitely above our ways.

How should we respond?

1. We should sincerely _____ about the state of the lost, for God's glory and for their good. Therefore, we should _____ and _____.

2. We should be _____ that salvation is based solely on the _____ of God.

3. We should be mindful of our responsibility to _____ and their responsibility to _____.

4. We should trust God that He _____ what He is doing.

5. We should _____ God for His infinite sovereignty, goodness, and wisdom.