

- 1) What happened to people who died before Jesus died on the cross?
- 2) Please explain Phil. 2:12.
- 3) My 10-year-old niece wants to study the book of Revelation. Is there a study book on Revelation written for younger ones?
- 4) When the rapture happens, will children be taken up? What about those with mental disabilities?
- 5) After the rapture occurs, will we have glorified bodies during the tribulation? Will our bodies change again for the millennium when we will be back on earth?
- 6) If the way everything will turn out is already known by God, why should we pray for things like healing and recovery?
- 7) A believing friend of mine just married a non-believer. She was counseled by the pastor, elders, family and friends not to rush into marriage with this person. I still want her friendship, however I cannot congratulate her. What is your Scriptural counsel?
- 8) Recently, I heard a preacher say that Paul had to have been married to be part of the Sanhedrin. He hypothesized that perhaps Paul's wife had left him after his conversion, which could explain why he held singleness in high esteem. What are your thoughts on this?
- 9) Are there multiple kinds of baptisms or fillings of the Holy Spirit as some Charismatics teach?
