- I. Introductory Observations Regarding Hannah and Her Prayer
  - A. The Relationship of Old Testament Believers to God, When Right with God, Was Characterized by Intimacy, Vitality and Spirituality
  - B. The Concept of the Kingdom of God Held by Old Testament Believers Was Not Exclusively or Even Essentially National or Geo-Political
  - C. Even in the Old Testament, Eminently Godly Women Were Influential and Impactful in the Church, While Not in Positions of Leadership in the Church
- II. Hannah's Prayer of Rejoicing in the King and His Kingdom
  - A. The Glorious King of the Kingdom (vs. 1-3)
  - B. The Glorious Administration of the Kingdom (vs. 4-8)
  - C. The Glorious Consummation of the Kingdom (vs. 9-10)
- III. Encouragements for Our Prayers to be More Like Hannah's
  - A. Hannah's God Must be Our God, and We Must Be His People
  - B. We Must Come Boldly to the Throne of Grace – Both When in Abundant Grief and When in Abundant Rejoicing
