

ISAIAH

Look Out For Stinking Fruit
Isaiah 5:8-30

Mac Williams, Pastor

1. When the spiritual advantages (the means of grace) that God gives are neglected, the result will be worthless, stinking _____ of all sorts.

a. Instead of the good fruit of contentment, the result will be the stinking fruit of _____.

b. Instead of the good fruit of self-control, the result will be the stinking fruit of being controlled by your _____.

c. Instead of the good fruit of living in the _____ of God, the result will be the stinking fruit of being hardened by sin.

d. Instead of the good fruit of biblical doctrine and right morals, the result will be the stinking fruit of distorted _____ and twisted ethics.

*"Doctrine and ethics are close _____.
When one no longer believes in the doctrine of a judgment, one turns aside from moral distinctions."
- Edward Young*

1) The person becomes convinced that what is evil is _____ and what is good is evil.

2) The person sees themselves as _____ than God.

3) The person has no problem with the perversion of _____.

2. The _____ of the Lord is real. Those who abandon the Lord can expect to be abandoned to the most severe of judgments.

"We may sometimes escape the hand of _____, but how can we escape the hand of God?" - John Calvin
