May 30, 2010

“Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving.”

(Colossians 4:2a)

This week let us be united in praying for:

Joel and Virginia Cook, AWANA missionaries to Northern California and

Northern Nevada: that God will protect them on the road; that Joe will provide effective encouragement and training for new clubs; that many will come to Christ through the AWANA ministries; that they will be encouraged by the AWANA conference in Chicago

President Obama: that he will love justice, seek truth and respect the dignity of every person; that the Spirit will lift his mind and spirit above his up-bringing and circumstances; that he will be humbled by the weight of his responsibilities and seek God’s face for direction

Trustees: that they will enjoy a strong sense of common purpose and teamwork for summer projects; that adequate funds will be available for their projects; that they will complete their projects in a timely manner

Military Personnel of the Week: SSG Matthew Basner (son of Randy and Lou Basner): may have a temporary change of duty which will put him in charge of an EOD platoon from Louisiana deploying to Afghanistan in January 2011, rather than deploying to Iraq in July 2010. Pray for wisdom for all involved in this decision.

College Student of the Week: Paul Boettcher at the University of Oregon (son of Bob and Karen Boettcher): that Paul would accept the Lord’s leading and that he would be encouraged as he hunts for a job and makes decisions about his future academic and/or professional career.
