

“Dealing with Disappointment”Fuzzy Vision (v. 13-24)

- They were _____.
- They were _____.
- They were _____.

Corrective Lenses (v. 25-27)

- They had trusted their own intellect, understanding and perception instead of God’s revealed _____.
- They didn’t understand that _____ would precede glory.

Everything in Focus (v. 28-32)

- They recognized Jesus in the _____ of bread.
- Their minds were illuminated by the _____.

A New Outlook (v. 33-35)

_____ vision calls for _____ lenses.

“Dealing with Disappointment”Fuzzy Vision (v. 13-24)

- They were _____.
- They were _____.
- They were _____.

Corrective Lenses (v. 25-27)

- They had trusted their own intellect, understanding and perception instead of God’s revealed _____.
- They didn’t understand that _____ would precede glory.

Everything in Focus (v. 28-32)

- They recognized Jesus in the _____ of bread.
- Their minds were illuminated by the _____.

A New Outlook (v. 33-35)

_____ vision calls for _____ lenses.