Title _____ Text _____

There are different kinds of difficult _____

God inspired difficult texts for at least _____ reasons

Two goals today: sort through the difficulty and then draw out the

_____ and application of the _____

What is the difficulty? Exodus 2:14-15 says Moses was _____

The two solutions are (1) this is clearly a reference to Moses leaving

_____ and (2) this is a reference to Moses leaving at the _____

Pastor Brian thinks efforts to reconcile Moses' first departure from Egypt with Heb. 11:27 are too _____

He also thinks that the objections against it referring to Moses' second departure at the Exodus are not strong enough to dismiss this _____

From the first encounter to the last, Moses operated by _____

Pharaoh increased the Israelites' _____

Every step of the way there was struggle, there was conflict, there was a showdown with the most powerful human being on the _____

Moses endured not only Pharaoh, but he endured the _____

Moses exemplified Heb. _____:_____

John Bunyan spent _____ years in the Bedford Jail.

He said he needed to live upon God who is _____

We are called to nothing less! By faith we look to Him whom we cannot now
