

SUNDAY MORNING

5/29/16

Rev. David VanBrugge

Votum and Salutation

Psalter 120

Reading of the Law of God

Scripture Reading:

Habakkuk 3:1-2, 13, 17-19

Prayer

Psalter 296

Sermon Text: Habakkuk 3:17-19

Resolved!

1. To see beyond circumstance
2. To rejoice in God
3. To live with confidence

Psalter 366 (standing)

Reading of the second part of the Lord's Supper form

Psalter 35:4-6

Administration of the Lord's Supper

Psalter 187:1, 3, 4

Closing Prayer

Psalter 292

Doxology of Praise (pg. 415)

Benediction

SUNDAY MORNING

1. How do the six descriptors in verse 17 describe devastation? What would be the emotional response to such devastation?
2. What should Habakkuk's response to his circumstances teach us, even as we anticipate communion?
3. Prove that rejoicing in God is biblical experiential religion.
4. Joy in God is described as multi-faceted. How can understanding the different aspects of the God of my salvation help one to celebrate communion?
5. What is the key lesson from Habakkuk mentioned? Where can it be found in the text?
6. Following Habakkuk, in what ways should God's children resolve to live with confidence?