

ABOUT RPC

We at Resurrection Presbyterian Church are excited about bringing glory to God through worship that celebrates the good news of Jesus Christ and by serving those in need of Christ-like compassion.

RESURRECTION | We believe the Bible is God's Word and that it has the power to change people's lives. That is why our ministry is rooted in Scripture. God is pleased to use the simple preaching of the person and work of Jesus Christ to give us eternal, resurrection life. This is why we chose the name, "Resurrection" for our church. When the Son of God, Jesus Christ, came to earth, he lived a perfect life and died on the cross in our place, so that we could be forgiven of our sins. And three days later, Jesus rose from the grave, overcoming the powers of sin and death in his resurrection. Now, he is reigning with God the Father over all things. He delights to share his power over sin and death with all those who trust in him by faith by giving us his Holy Spirit. As a community of this faith, we have this hope of eternal life. One day soon, Jesus Christ will return from heaven, and everyone who put their faith in him will be raised like he was to join him in glory forever.

PRESBYTERIAN | Presbyterianism provides safety for church members and accountability for church leaders. Most people don't know the word, "presbyterian," but it's just a reference to the kind of leadership we have in our church. Presbyter is a Greek word that means "elder." Our pastor does not lead our church like a CEO or a pope. Rather, we are led and cared for by a "session," a group of mature, Christian men that serve together with our pastor. Our elders and our pastor are, themselves, under the authority of the elders and pastors of other churches in our denomination. We are affiliated with a reformed Christian denomination called the Orthodox Presbyterian Church.

Father, you set us free in Christ from the power of sin. You reveal the way of righteousness to us by your Spirit and Word. Yet, sin remains in us, and we often give in to temptation.

Lord, we hate our sin, and we repent of our transgressions. We confess that we have been selfish and not loving. Our affections for each other have been dull and dim. We want more honor than we are willing to give. In the midst of trials, we are impatient and irritable, not patient nor prayerful. When we are cursed, we seek revenge, for we are proud and wise in our own sight. We are content with burned bridges and broken relationships, though you call us to harmony and peace.

Your love, O God, is genuine. You abhor evil and overcome it with good. In your mercy, overcome our evil with good. Forgive us for Christ's sake. We pray in his name. Amen.
