

35 Then Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said to them, ^a“These are the words which the LORD has commanded you to do: ²Work shall be done for ^bsix days, but the seventh day shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of rest to the LORD. Whoever does any work on it shall be put to ^cdeath. ³^dYou shall kindle no fire throughout your dwellings on the Sabbath day.”

⁴And Moses spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, ^e“This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying: ⁵‘Take from among you an offering to the LORD. ^fWhoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it as an offering Some are not gifted to do the work, but we will find that some (as in 35:22) are able to “bring the stuff to make the stuff.” They had to get to a place where they had generosity as their default setting. One might notice that they made a calf, and then were told not to wear the rest of what they took from the Egyptians. (chapters 32-33). to the LORD: ^ggold, silver, and bronze; ^hblue, purple, and scarlet thread, fine linen, and ⁱgoats’ hair; ⁷ ram skins dyed red, badger skins, and acacia wood; ⁸ oil for the light, ^jand spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense; ⁹ onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate.

¹⁰^k“All who are gifted artisans among you shall come and make all that the LORD has commanded: beginning in 28:3, 15 and continuing in 31:1-5. What is amazing is that we use skills today to adorn literal houses of worship and we do the same to adorn the anti-type to these pictures, Jesus Christ (Titus 2:9). He looks better as we apply our giftings and He looks better. 1 Thessalonians 4:11 tells us that we are supposed to find what God has gifted us to do, sure, but assume it is you’re your hands. ¹¹^lthe tabernacle, its tent, its covering, its clasps, its boards,
