

EXODUS

Out of Egypt to Meet with God

You Shall Not Covet

Exodus 20:17

PASTOR'S PRAYER

Almighty Father in Heaven, O LORD, how manifold are your works! In wisdom have you made them all; the earth is full of your creatures. And we all look to you to give us our protection & our provision. When we give us our supply we gather it up; when you open your hand, we are filled with good things. When you hide your face, we are dismayed; when you take away our breath, we die and return to the dust. When you send forth your Spirit, we are reborn and refreshed and renewed. O that you will send forth your Spirit to water our coveting and discontent souls this morning. May we turn by faith to look at Jesus our great joy and end and aim. Jesus, the object of all joy and satisfaction and contentment. Give us, I pray this morning Father, your Spirit that we might see Jesus, trust Jesus and desire Jesus. Amen & Amen

OUTLINE

1. The Foundation for this Commandment
2. The Description of this Commandment
3. The Redemption from this Commandment

Central Textual Truth

God's people are not to covet.

Central Sermon Aim

I want SGBC to see & savor Christ as our greatest joy & hope.