Doctrines:

1. Justice is a natural attribute of God that must always be satisfied in all His Works:

2. Distributive justice requires human judges to imitate God's justice:

3. Every man walks in a vain show:

4. Sin brings judgment, even if the sinner is privileged with God's written Word:

5. The Law of Nature is an unwritten and living law applicable to all mankind:

Duties:

1. Be imitators of God's justice as dear children:

2. Do not look on the outward appearance, but seek to judge by the inner man:

3. Forsake the vain show in which all of us are involved by nature:

4. Flee the judgment in store for those privileged a faithless ones:
