

Sermon Notes

The Lord Loves the Gates of Zion

Psalm 87

The Church is precious in the _____ of God

The Church is precious to the true _____ of God

Psalm 87 is a celebration of the _____

The Psalm falls into _____ sections

Verses 1-3 God _____ Zion

Verses 4-7 Zion is the birthplace of all of God's _____

Zion becomes synonymous for the _____ and dwelling place of God

Mountains were images of strength, stability, and _____

The gates = the whole city, the place of corporate _____

What is said about Zion is _____

Enemies become _____, become family, worshipping _____ together

Born there = not physical, but a spiritual _____

Registered = name written in the _____ of life

A place of singing and _____

A place of _____

Where God is, there is _____; where there is joy, there is _____

What a privilege to one of Zion's _____

Public worship is the nearest resemblance of _____

Oh the Lord loves the gates of _____

She is _____ because God is her God!

She is our mother, having given us birth by the _____

She is the fountain of _____ the springs of life flow from her.

