

The Danger of Self-Deception

Romans 2:1-5

- I. The moralist is self-righteous and self-deceived (v.1a)
- II. The moralist practices the same sins as the flagrantly immoral (v.1b)
- III. The moralist does not believe he will be judged (v.2-4)
- IV. The moralist compounds his guilt a little more every day (v.5)