

Exodus 14:1-15:21
We Walked They Sank

On the banks of impossibility ...

- I. Down by the Sea
 - A. Under Hot Pursuit

 - B. A Cry of Distress

 - C. A Command from God

- II. Divine Intervention
 - A. A Dividing Line

 - B. Disaster for the Egyptians

 - C. Deliverance for Israel

- III. On the Other Side
 - A. The People Believed

 - B. Sang & Danced

 - C. And Looked Ahead

... but who is like the LORD?

Children, Listen ...

1. Why were the people of Israel afraid?

2. Why should they not have been afraid?

3. How was Israel able to cross the sea?

4. What happened to Pharaoh and his army when they tried to cross the sea?

Facing Impossibilities

The people were facing an impossibility. Fresh on their exit from Egypt they found themselves hotly pursued by Pharaoh and his armies and on the banks of the Red Sea. It seemed there was no way out and that they were facing certain doom, and they were terrified. Even though they just saw the mighty hand of God at work, they quickly lost sight of their awesome Deliverer. Nonetheless they were commanded to turn their feet toward the sea and walk! Lo and behold God not only escorted them across on dry ground, the walls of water he created to make a safe passageway deluged the pursuing enemies and did them in. The church and we as individuals may face seemingly impossible situations, but God's perfect plan will prevail. Think about it. The most impossible thing to accomplish would be our own salvation. But what is impossible with man is possible with God. Not only does He bring us safely to Himself through the victory of Christ, He destroyed our most formidable enemies, sin, the devil, and death, in the process!