

When God is Silent
Esther
Pastor Phil Winfield
May 9, 2010

Providence: The hand of God in the glove of History

1. God cares for his people no matter where they are: chapter 2:5-6
 2. God cares for his people no matter who they are: chapter 2:7
 3. God cares for his people in ways they can't see: chapter 2:8-9
 4. God cares for his people when they are unappreciated. 2:21-23
 5. God cares for his people when things seem out of control: chapter 3:5-6
 6. God cares for his people when he asks them to do the unthinkable: 4:8-11
 7. God cares for his people even when he seems to remain silent.
- You can rest in the sovereignty of God - His Purpose will prevail
 - You can count on the Providence of God - His people will persevere.