The Voice of God
Hebrews 12:18-29

Hebrews 12:18-29 reminds us of the voice of God in the past and in the present and warns us not to “refuse Him who speaks.”

- I. The voice of God from Mt. Sinai causes _____ (18-21).
- II. The voice of God from Mt. Zion gives _____ (22-24).
 - A. We have come to the _____ city of God (22a-b).
 - B. We have come to a _____ of angels (22c).
 - C. We have come to the _____ of the Firstborn (23a).
 - D. We have come to the _____ Judge of all (23b).
 - E. We have come to _____ men made perfect (23c).
 - F. We have come to _____ the Mediator (24a).
 - G. We have come to the _____ blood (24b).
- III. The voice of God from heaven demands _____ (25-29).

So Christian turned out of his way to go to Mr. Legality's house for help; but, behold, when he was got now hard by the hill, it seemed so high, and also that side of it that was next the wayside did hang so much over, that Christian was afraid to venture farther, lest the hill should fall on his head; wherefore there he stood still, and wotted not what to do. Also his burden now seemed heavier to him than while he was in his way. There came also flashes of fire out of the hill that made Christian afraid that he should be burnt: here, therefore, he sweat and did quake for fear. And now he began to be sorry that he had taken Mr. Worldly Wiseman's counsel; and with that, he saw Evangelist coming to meet him, at the sight also of whom he began to blush for shame.
